

Clinics

Tips and tricks

By Marty Cozad

It's the little things and the right tools that make a project go good and helps you to enjoy it.

Why build a bridge?

By Marty Cozad

Many types and reasons for having a bridge on your GRR.

Roadbed

By Marty Cozad

A good stable roadbed is the back bone of any GRR.

MTH DCS Protosound 2 – Complete overview

By Ray Manley

What is DCS? Is DCS the same as DCC?

System component overview

Review of control and sound features

Troubleshooting issues

Tips on successful deployment (Track or Battery power)

Install in non-MTH engines

Open Session on General Garden Railroading

By Marty Cozad

Marty will be holding an open discussion on Garden Railroading. A question and answer forum on anything and everything to do with the hobby.

The Basics of Weathering

By Anthony Madrigal (BUBBA)

Techniques in weathering rolling stock, locomotives and other things on your railroad to achieve a more realistic look.

Entry Level Battery Power.

By Anthony Madrigal (BUBBA)

The pros and cons of battery power - featuring the Airwire and Aristocraft's Train Engineer. as they are the easiest to convert and how to wire the engine for battery power.

Gardening basics for your Railroad

By Sheryl Roberts, K-state extension master gardener

Learn some of the basic gardening skills to help make your railroad complete and your garden thrive.

Container gardening

By Sheryl Roberts, K-state extension master gardener

Tips on making your containers, both in and out of the railroad striking and floriferous.